A Program of Lancaster Mennonite School

Mennonite Children's Choir of Lancaster

Each voice brings beauty to the whole. The audio you hear today reflects each face you see on stage. MCCL singers invested hours in rigorous learning during Tuesday evening rehearsals and weekly at-home practice. They submitted individual audio recordings now compiled in rich choral unity. With joy, MCCL sings a new song!

Randall Goodgame

Slugs & Bugs by Randall Goodgame creates music and stories full of faith and silliness for the whole family to delight in and sing for years to come. Slugs & Bugs believe those shared experiences will translate into stronger relationships in the family and a deeper understanding of their relationship with Jesus. In 2006, Randall and Andrew Peterson released the album Slugs & Bugs & Lullabies. Slugs & Bugs music is among the most revered and critically lauded series in Christian family entertainment, garnering multiple Dove Award nominations and millions of streams online. In 2019, Randall released his first 4 picture books and in 2020 released 5 more picture books. In 2019, a new Slugs & Bugs Show featured good times, good music, and the Good News in a 13-episode TV series.

Engagement with MCCL singers: Randall Goodgame shared his joy and love of writing children's music with Carol Choir, Choristers I, and Prelude Music singers. Singers learned and listened to Goodgame's music in the weeks leading up to an evening together. During the Zoom session, Goodgame shared a mini concert. He answered singer questions, including when he wrote his first song, why he writes music, how many instruments he plays, and whether he likes to play games. His enthusiasm was infectious, and singers were inspired by his music gifts and love for Jesus. Singers had a great time pulling together their virtual For Us choir project with Randall.

Tammi Hessen

Tammi Hessen is drawn to transformative arts—she is a local therapist and drumming teacher in the Lancaster, Reading, and Harrisburg areas. Tammi teaches African drumming at Franklin & Marshall College and has taught at Millersville University. She has a small private therapy practice and teaches empowering local drumming classes. Tammi is a member of several music bands and performance groups, is a mother, and lives with her family in Lancaster.

Engagement with MCCL singers: Tammi Hessen shared expertise and knowledge on African music and drumming. Each choir learned an African vocal piece (Uyai Mose or Bolingo). Hessen then took the choir on a journey of exploring traditional African drumming rhythms to accompany these pieces. Singers learned to perform and respond to specific African rhythms in a drum circle. They also learned characteristics of the genre and came to understand the many layers of their piece (vocal, movement, and percussion).

Andrew Peterson

Andrew Peterson is a singer-songwriter, author, and founder of the Rabbit Room. Andrew has released more than ten records over the past twenty years, earning him a reputation for songs that connect with his listeners in ways equally powerful, poetic, and intimate. As an author, Andrew's books include the four volumes of the award-winning Wingfeather Saga, released in collectible hardcover editions through Random House in 2020, and his creative memoir, Adorning the Dark, released in 2019 through B&H Publishing. In 2008, Andrew co-founded the Rabbit Room, a nonprofit organization based in Nashville, Tennessee that fosters Christ-centered community and spiritual formation through music, story, and art.

Engagement with MCCL singers: Andrew Peterson inspired Concert, Choristers II, and Chamber Choir singers with his passion for music, Jesus, and sharing faith through story. Singers listened to many different Peterson songs and interviews as part of their weekly practice assignments in preparation for an evening Zoom and virtual collaboration of Behold the Lamb with Peterson. In a captivating evening on Zoom with singers, Peterson shared his life story telling how he began songwriting and performing, of the challenges and joys of writing music; and he responded to singer questions such as how he works through writing blocks and the recording process.

Matthew Woodson

Matthew Woodson is an educator, performer and entrepreneur based out of Lancaster, PA. A percussionist by trade, he can be seen with local band Big Boy Brass and other local production companies. As the Director of Community Percussion for the local non-profit Music For Everyone, he instructs students in the School District of Lancaster and facilitates numerous group drumming events and programs.

Engagement with MCCL singers: Matthew Woodson spent time with each choir exploring how rhythm and body percussion connected to the fall repertoire. Singers actively engaged their whole bodies in coordination activities to develop their listening skills, focus, and independent sense of rhythm. A highlight for Chamber Choir was learning Woodson's original body percussion arrangement for We are not Alone.
